CHILD DESERTER ARRESTED HERE

Officer Arrested Woman
Friday Night by Order of Cincinnati Police.

Woman Left Child on Platform
While Changing Cars in Cincinnati.

An unknown woman was arrested in this city Friday night by officer Gordon by the order of the Cincinnati police. She came in on the Great Central train which is supposed to arrive here at 9:45 p.m., but the train did not arrive here until almost eleven o'clock. When the train did pull into the depot, officer Gordon stepped on board and had little trouble in recognizing his victim, so complete was the description of her which he received by telegram from the police in Cincinnati.

The woman seemed surprised at the officer's sudden appearance, but she did not make a move to resist arrest. She was placed in the Rush county jail, and the police authorities of Cincinnati were notified of her capture.

It seems that while the woman was changing cars in the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton depot in Cincinnati, that she left a four-week-old baby on the depot platform and then took a train and started to Indianapolis.

The baby was found about eight o'clock last night, and the yard master at Cincinnati declared that some one who changed cars must have left the baby, as no one else was around at the time.

Conductor William Deneen, of the C. H. & D. train, informed the police that the only passenger to change cars was a young woman about 22 years old. The baby was well dressed and in a chip basket.

In the basket was a prescription signed by a Dr. Pierce and made out at the drug store of W. A. McBath & Co., of Knoxville, Tenn.

The description which was given officer Gordon in order to enable him to find the woman, was as follows: "She wears a hat adorned with red poppies, a white waist, a skirt with brown and white polka dots and a red ribbon around her neck. She carried a bundle wrapped in white paper. She has brown hair, was about five feet five inches tall, and weighed about 125 pounds."

A dispatch received from Cincinnati at 9:30 this morning, informs us that the woman's name is Eliza Owens.

The woman was called upon by the police authorities of this city this morning, and she acknowledged that she did leave the child in Cincinnati Friday night. She said that her home is near Knoxville, Tenn., and that she was going to Michigan. She says that she wants to go back to Cincinnati and tell the police officers there all she knows of her deed, and she will be returned to that city today.

She seems to think of her arrest as a mere joke, and at times she would laugh so as to be heard over the entire jail. She is thought to be slightly demented. She once said to a fellow-prisoner that if she did not get out of jail soon, "she would kill herself, but on the whole her conversations are very gay and cheerful."

The woman will be returned to Cincinnati today, where she will have a hearing under the charge of child desertion.

Mrs. Nannie Ross, of Indianapolis, is the guest of T. A. Jones and family, of Walker township.

Miss Jessie Morton has returned to her home in Shelbyville after a two week's visit with her sister Mrs. Fred Erick, of North Julian street.

Mrs. Amy Aldridge, of Milroy, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Richey, of West First street, this week, while attending the Chautauqua.

Lieut. William R. Hunt and wife, of Treaty, are visiting L. B. Downey and family, Smith Carney and family, and other relatives here and in Noble township.

EVERYBODY PLEASED

Trade and Crop Conditions Were Never Better in This Country.

Corn! Corn! Corn! The word can be "eared" everywhere. Farmers shout it. Merchants grow enthusiastic. Townspeople are amazed at it. And nature just smiles and continues to make more corn, corn, corn.

"It's wonderful," said a prominent farmer today, "perfectly wonderful. There's money in it, lots of money in it. Hogs grow fat on corn and hogs are hovering about $6.50. After an exceptionally wet season the weather for corn growing is perfect.

You can almost hear the rustle of the blades as they cut the air in their upward shoot. Unless signs fail the farmer is now in the height of his prosperity. Not one year in the past ten or since the panic of the early nineties have all circumstances been so favorable for the planter. It's simply great, the way things are coming his way. It's my impression that the felicity of the farmer will be re-echoed from the workshops, mines, factories, and in fact every where over the country. Gentlemen, I anticipate one of the most splendid conditions in the history of our country, within the next year."

PRIVATE BANKS GIVEN A JOLT

State Tax Board Hands Them out a Solar Plexus Blow.

A decision of importance and interest to all private banks in Indiana was made yesterday by the State Board of tax commissioners in the case of the Greenwood Banking company which appealed from the assessment of the board of review of Johnson county.

By the county board the Greenwood Banking company was assessed $7,485. The bank's appeal was sustained by the higher board, but instead of then reducing the assessment the state board increased the sum to $25,760.

In increasing the assessment the state board held the all cash on hand and all deposit belonging to a private bank, but in the hands of other banks are assessable.

Rev. T. T. Carpenter, pastor of the Second M. E. church, returned this morning from Evansville, where he attended the district conference. He reports a fine meeting. Miss Myrtle Ferguson, of this city, read a paper before the missionary society.

—Misses Sadie and Lila Winship, daughters of Jesse Winship, of St. Louis, are the guests of their uncle, John B. Winship and family, on West Fifth street.

—Greenfield Star: Sam Offutt and John Rhue are in South Dakota looking over the country. They went with a party of thirty, most of whom were from Rush county, but separated on their arrival in Dakota.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE CASE

Attorneys Endeavoring to Ascertain Something About Cook's Character.

But Little That is New in Cook
Case—Coroners Verdict Probably Early Next Week.

Today, there has been but very few new developments in the Cook murder case. The authorities are still working day and night on the mystery regarding the person who fired the fatal shot and what the motive was. People generally do not believe that Mrs. Bankert did all of the shooting. Physicians argue that a small woman like Mrs. Bankert, who weighs but slightly over 100 pounds, could not have fired five bullets into Cook, rushed down stairs, secured another revolver and fire two more times at her victim and then gone after a razor and slashed him across the back of the neck. Well-known physicians scout the idea. Mrs. Bankert is still confined in jail, but the other members of the household are still at the home in the country.

Cook and his wife were divorced in New Castle, and Mrs. Cook afterwards married Ed. Johnson, and now resides on Bundy avenue. Cook's little daughter, about 12 years of age, resides with her mother. The investigation was continued throughout a part of the day before the coroner and the prosecutor. Six witnesses were examined, having been called for the purpose of finding out Cook's place of residence during the past two years.

Both sides are still engaged in looking up the character of the deceased. From this it has developed that Cook was left an orphan at an early age, and was taken in and reared by a family near Laurel, Ind. He was married in Franklin county.

Startling evidence is being found by the attorneys of Mrs. Bankert, among which is Cook's former record in Henry county. The following is a list of crimes for which Norman Cook has been committed to the Henry county jail.

Oct. 27, 1897, committed to jail on charge of larceny.

March 26, 1898, committed to jail on charge of assault and battery.

Oct. 15, 1898, committed to jail on charge of disturbing the peace.

Oct. 17, 1898, put under bond for the security of the peace. He failed to give bond and was committed to jail for 45 days.

Not only do these facts go to show that Cook is a bad character, but also the following divorce complaint, which was filed in the Henry county circuit court in 1888 by Cook's wife. The following is the complaint as on record in the clerk's office of Henry county:

State of Indiana, Henry county, ss:

Henry Circuit Court, April Term,

Mary E. Cook vs. Norman E. Cook,
Complaint for divorce.

Comes now Mary E. Cook and complains of said Norman E. Cook and says that both this plaintiff and this defendant are and have been for more than two years past residents of Henry county, Indiana; that the said parties were duly married on or about Nov. 11, 1889; that there have been born to said parties two children who are living, to-wit: Ernest Cook, who was born on February 25, 1890, and Edna Cook, who was born on June 4, 1891; that the said plaintiff has duly performed her duties as the wife of said defendant ever since they were married, as a wife should; that the said defendant has at divers times attacked said plaintiff with violence, striking her with his fist, slapping her with his hand, kicking her with his foot, choking her with his hands, hurling her with force against the sides of the house in which they lived, and against property within the house; that said defendant has frequently called said plaintiff vile names and falsely charged plaintiff with being a prostitute, a strumpet, and other false and abusive epithets, in the privacy of their house and before others; that he has at different times drawn his knife upon plaintiff, threatened to kill her and carried a razor for days at a time saying he would cut her throat from ear to ear; that defendant has not for a period of more than two years made a reasonable maintenance for said plaintiff and said children; that said defendant is an habitual drunkard, his drinking being a constant habit whenever defendant had any money; that at different times defendant has maliciously destroyed the household goods of plaintiff, and torn her clothing and wearing apparel in a rage; that at different times the said defendant has been prosecuted and fined for assaulting plaintiff; that she has had to support said defendant in idleness and drunkenness; wherefore she asks that she be granted a divorce from said defendant; that she be granted the custody of the said two children; that she be granted alimony in the sum of $500, and that defendant be required to pay to her toward the support of said children and their education and maintenance the sum of $2 per week and for all other proper relief.

Coroner Coleman stated today that he thought that the coroner's investigation would end about the first of next week. He furthermore stated that he did not know of any more evidence at the present time, and that the case would be closed as far as he was concerned, unless some important evidence should come to light. It will be one week tonight since the coroner has started his investigation, and in that time the testimony of scores of witnesses has been taken.

THE SEASON OF SNEEZING

Hay Fever Victims are Now on Their Annual Migration to the North.

The hay fever season has arrived, and if you can't sneeze at the rate of thirty per minute, you are not in style. With a large number of people, sneezing is all the rage, and it is securing more patrons every day.

Numerous Rushville victims of hay fever have already gone to St. Ignace, Mich., and other points in that State where relief is to be had.

At S. Ignace is the national headquarters of the Hay Fever Association. This organization has been in existence for several years, and has many thousands of members on its roster. The fee for membership is $1, which is paid annually.

A certificate is issued to the person so paying, and this certificate entitles him to all the rights and privileges of the organization.

Until four years ago the national headquarters were at Marquette, Mich., but at that time it was moved to St. Ignace, and that is the shrine to which annual pilgrimages are made. Members from all over the United States go to St. Ignace at the opening of the season, and upon arrival there deposit their certificate, and this entitles them to one-half of the railroad fare paid by them, and also special hotel accommodations and other favors that are very essential.

Thirty sneezes a minute entitles one to membership.

Paul Harris entertained about fifteen couples last evening at his home near Gings, in honor of his guests, the Misses Grace and Mariam Kitchen.

The members of the Epicurian club will entertain their gentleman friends this evening with one of their splendid dinners at the home of Miss Elsie Clark, north Main street. Miss Halie Riley and Miss Lucie Reynolds, who are visiting Miss Clark, will be the guests of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stewart returned today from an extended visit with their son in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Swain have returned from Plainfield, where they attended the wedding of Miss Minnie Little and Arthur M. Davis. Mr. Davis is superintendent of a mine in Mexico, and he and his bride left at once for that place.

MAKES A VERY BUSY SCENE

Great Activity Among Workmen on Bridge at William's Creek.

Ideal Setting For the Scene on the James M. Ochiltree Farm
East of Town.

Concerning the work on the I. & C. bridge at Williams creek and the scenes there at the present time, the Connerville News says:

Probably the greatest scene of activity in Fayette county is on the farm of James M. Ochiltree, six miles east of Connerville. It is on this farm that the large concrete bridge for the I. & C. Traction Co. is being built. The tract of land along Williams creek, is the last forty acres that Mr. Ochiltree added to his farm, and has always been dubbed, by the family, as "Down on the Forty."

The surveyors of the Traction Company agree that "Down on the Forty" is the most beautiful spot between Indianapolis and Cincinnati, and it is here, surrounded by this beautiful bit of nature, that this small army of men are working to erect the largest concrete bridge in Indiana.

On the northeast side of the farm is located a village of tents that is the home of the men who are digging and preparing the foundation of the bridge. Along the creek are located some shelter tents, a small blacksmith shop and the great stone crusher. To the south is the old stone quarry and falls, which form a rugged and picturesque spot. Above the falls is placed the engine that furnishes the drilling power, and here the men are busy blasting and hauling rock for the stone crusher. Dozens of teams are passing to and from these points making things look busy.

Located on a beautiful knoll, to the north of the quarry, is another village of tents, used by the workmen in the stone. Near Mr. Ochiltree's residence is a group of tents, occupied by the superintendent and his family. This primitive home looks to be ideal, so far as camp life goes.

Almost hourly buggies and carriages pass too and from the scene of action, showing the interest of the people in the enterprise. Every day the Glenwood grocery wagon carries a two-horse load of provisions to the camp, and the butcher follows with his load of supplies.

Mr. Wilk and Mr. Stewart are here and there among the men in active service, but no man in the camp is more interested or kept moving faster than Mr. Ochiltree. He has taken a new lease on life and enjoys the business and the visitors more than anybody.

A visit to this interesting place is not only instructive and entertaining, but convinces one that we are soon to have a convenient, safe and reasonable mode of travel that will give Connerville just the advantage she has long needed.

—Miss Winifred Glare will attend the millinery openings at Indianapolis Monday. From there she will go to Frankfort to visit her brother Fred.

—Connerville Examiner: Rev. A. N. Marlatt is spending a few days at Rushville the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Scholl, and attending the Chautauqua.

Judge W. A. Cullen and wife, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth East and Mrs. Arvel Herkless were expected home today from a ten days' trip to Detroit and Mt. Clemens, Mich.

Indiana peaches this season, according to the fruit prices current, command a higher price by 25 to 35 per cent. than any other fruit in the Chicago market. The Indiana product is in competition in the market with Michigan, Illinois, Missouri and Ohio.

The crop in the peach growing belt in Southern Indiana is enormous and the quality of the fruit is first-class. The fancy fruit of the choicest varieties brings as much as $2 and $3 a crate, which is equivalent to $4 to $5 a bushel.

CHEAPER AND BETTER

Gas Made From Crude Oil at
From Five to Six Cents.

"The new crude oil gas is burning well. It produces a much hotter fire than natural gas. We can not, at this time, give figures on cost of producing this gas, but we expect it to be cheaper—and better—than coal produced gas or even the natural gas we use."

This is the first public admission made by the American Window Glass Company of their recent discovery of a process for making a fuel superior in heating power to natural gas. The cost of natural gas to them is 12 cents per 1,000 feet, while the cost of the new process is from five to six cents. The details of the process are carefully guarded. The product, as manufactured, is, as yet, turned direct into their furnaces, but the new gas is as susceptible of being stored in holders or reservoirs as is the artificial gas made from coal.

But even more important than the stated low cost of manufacturing this gas is the assertion that it produces a much hotter fire than natural gas; in other words, that the heat units of the new gas are much greater than natural gas.

The surveyors of the Traction Company agree that "Down on the Forty" is the most beautiful spot between Indianapolis and Cincinnati, and it is here, surrounded by this beautiful bit of nature, that this small army of men are working to erect the largest concrete bridge in Indiana.

Those having the matter in charge are not engaged in very active work at present, as they are busy with other matters, but steps will be taken to push the preliminaries in a way that will be expected to lead to ultimate success.

It is asserted that it will be only a short time until a definite plan will be outlined for the securing of funds to finance the project.

IS CALLED AWAY TO OTHER WORLD

George W. Guire, Aged and Respected, Resident, Dies
This Morning.

It was with profound sorrow that Rushville people learned this morning of the death of George W. Guire, one of the most highly respected men in the community, which occurred at his home about 9 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Guire had been steadily declining for about two years yet his death came as a shock to his many friends and acquaintances. Mr. Guire was a

THE PARAMOUNT ISSUE

Of Governor Hanly's Administration Is Law Enforcement.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—In order that Governor Hanly might fill a number of engagements for speeches that he had for this week, the hearing of the appeals pending before the state board of tax commissioners was postponed until next week, when the session will be brought to a close. The governor cancelled many of the engagements he had for July and August, owing to the session of the tax board, but he does not expect to let up in his campaign for more rigid enforcement of the law. It is to be the paramount issue of his administration, and in order to keep it before the people it is said that he intends to deliver many speeches the year round. There has probably been no governor in Indiana in recent years who was invited to speak as often as he. The late governor Mount was a popular speaker, but most of his addresses were to farmers' institutes and not to the public in general. Governor Hanly has been compelled to be away from his office on an average of two or three days a week to keep his engagements.

Sidney W. Cantwell of Hartford City, speaker of the last house of representatives in Indiana, is lying almost at the point of death at St. Vincent's hospital here. In fact, it is very doubtful if he ever recovers as he has tubercular trouble of the kidneys and is very weak. An operation will be performed in hopes of saving his life, but it will be the last resort. Mr. Cantwell, however, is full of hope and that will help him bear the burden. He has been in poor health for a number of years, but has gone down hill more rapidly since the close of the legislature. He was one of the most conscientious and painstaking men that ever occupied the speaker's desk, yet all through the session it was evident that he was taxing his physical strength to the utmost. It was said this morning that he was resting easier. The operation is to be performed as soon as he gets the strength to undergo it.

The state board of tax commissioners has manifested a decided penchant for raising the taxation on banks. The experience of the private bank at Greenwood has already been noted, where the assessment of the county board of review was raised nearly $20,000 by the state board. It is said that the assessment of the private bank at Spiceland was raised even more and the assessment of three national banks at Greensburg which appealed were raised. It is very probable that the bankers who are dissatisfied with the work of their county boards will take the hint not to bring their troubles before the state board.

AID IS VOTED

Printers Will Give Help to Struggling Philadelphia Craftsmen.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 19.—The International Typographical union has voted to pay $250 a week to aid the union printers in their strike against the Philadelphia Inquirer, on the condition that the Philadelphia union will subscribe a like amount.

A resolution that no union man shall join the militia was voted down. The author alleged that capitalists can use the militia to further their own ends. A resolution was offered asking the union to have a bill passed in the United States to pay a pension of $12 a week to wage earners who have earned $1,000 a year continuously for twenty-one years. It was rejected. The anti-ticket scalping law was condemned. At the afternoon session an alleged school-book monopoly in the United States was discussed.

Owen Fies Affidavits.

Bedford, Ind., Aug. 19.—Robert Owens, a private detective, has filed affidavits before Justice McLachlin of Ooltitic charging Simpson B. Lowe, Frank Evans and Elmer Browning, all of Bedford, with the murder of Sarah C. Schafer, the Latin teacher of the Bedford high school, who was mysteriously killed on the night of Jan. 21, 1904. Both Evans and Browning have been arrested before for complicity in the murder, but both were discharged after a preliminary examination. The name of Simpson B. Lowe has never before been attached to the case in a legal form, but he recently filed a suit for libel, asking $10,000 from Colonel Voris of this city, on the allegation that Voris had made remarks about him in connection with the death of Miss Schafer.

FINAL STRUGGLE

Between Plenipotentiaries of Warring Nations Will Come Tuesday.

THE OUTLOOK GLOOMY

Black Pessimism Reigns at Portsmouth and Agreement Is Considered Quite Improbable

The Strongest Hope of Saving the Day For Peace Is Based On Outside Influences.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 19.—The peace conference has adjourned until Tuesday at 3 p. m. At the afternoon session yesterday the peace plenipotentiaries were unable to agree upon Article 11, relating to the limitations of Russia's sea power, and it was deferred. Article 12, providing for the grant of fishing rights on the Russian littoral was unanimously agreed upon. The articles which were passed over did not come up. The protocols will be drawn up during the three days interim, and on Tuesday the final struggle will come.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 19.—Black pessimism reigns at Portsmouth today. The prevailing view is that the fate of the peace conference is already sealed, that it has ended in failure, and that all that now remains is for the plenipotentiaries to meet on Tuesday, to which day they adjourned yesterday afternoon upon completing the seriatum consideration of the Japanese terms, sign the final protocol, go through the conventions and bid each other farewell.

In other words, that the meeting Tuesday will be what diplomacy calls "seance d'adieu." But there is still room for hope of a compromise. Neither President Roosevelt nor the powers will see the chance of peace shipwrecked without a final effort and that pressure is being exerted, especially at Tokio, to induce Japan to moderate her terms, is beyond question. Just what is being done or is to be done, has not transpired. King Edward is understood to be now lending a helping hand, and the financiers of the world are known to be exerting all their influence. At Tokio and St. Petersburg the final issue will be decided. The Japanese have been implacable throughout the six days' sittings. They have listened and explained, but they have yielded not an iota of the substance of their original demands. Mr. Witte accepted outright seven of the twelve Japanese conditions, and one in principle and four, including the main issues, indemnity and Sakhalin, he rejected. The other two, limitation of naval power and the surrender of interned warships, might have been arranged had there been any prospect of agreement on the two points upon which the divergence seemed irreconcilable.

At Tokio it is impossible to tell what view will be taken. Peace probably can be even now secured by the sacrifice of the indemnity. Vague intimations come from the Japanese side that "the demand for the cost of the war" might be moderated, but Mr. Witte's reply is that he will pay liberally for the maintenance of the Russian prisoners in Japan, but "not a cent for tribute."

The gravity of the situation from the Japanese point of view is contained in the following authoritative statement: "I cannot say positively, because all things are possible, but I fear that the meeting on Tuesday will be the farewell session of the Washington conference. Japan has done her utmost for peace. Russia now knows Japan's irreducible minimum."

Mr. Witte himself gave not the slightest encouragement. For publication he said: "We meet Tuesday only to sign the protocol," with the accent on the word "only." Another bad sign was the change in the personal attitude of the plenipotentiaries toward each other. During the week they have been growing more and more friendly at the luncheon which they take together at the navy-yard. This conversation was lively and even gay at times. Yesterday they sat together and ate in silence. All seemed strangely constrained, as if realizing that they could only agree to disagree, and that the war must go on. Today the situation can be summed up in a single sentence—prompt and heroic action by outside influence alone can save the conference.

Will Make Last Effort.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 19.—At midnight last night Assistant Secretary Peirce was hurriedly called to the Hotel Wentworth, where a message was awaiting him from the president. He apparently wrote a lengthy reply. Later he was called to the telegraph instrument and for half an hour carried on a conversation by telegraph with the president, who was at the other end of the wire at Oyster Bay. Mr. Peirce declined to make any statement. "I can tell you nothing," he said to all the anxious inquiries of the newspaper men. There is reason to believe, however, that the purpose of the president's conversation with Mr. Peirce was to arrange for one of the Russians to go to Oyster Bay. The president is understood to be already in communication with the Japanese through Baron Kaneko. Mr. Roosevelt is undoubtedly prepared to make a last effort to induce the warring countries to compromise.

THE STATE OF TRADE

What Bradstreet Has to Say of the Situation.

New York, Aug. 19.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Fall trade, while not yet under full headway, is steadily gathering force. Buyers are more numerous. Good weather for the harvesting and threshing, except in portions of the Northwest, continues to reveal very favorable results in both spring and winter-sown grains. Combined cereal yields will probably exceed all past years in both quantity and quality. Relatively high prices for agricultural products, manufactured materials and staple products do not deter buying operations. Collections on the whole have improved slightly, and even in the South, except in a small area of the fever-infected zone, trade and collections are alike better than anticipated earlier, while the West and East also return more favorable advices. Currency shipments to the country are increasing, but no particular effect on money rates as yet is noticeable.

DANGERS OF RACING

Auto Goes Off at a Tangent and Webb
Jay Fatally Hurt.

Buffalo, Aug. 19.—Webb Jay of Cleveland, was probably fatally injured at Kenilworth park in the ten-mile automobile race. At the three-quarters Jay's machine crashed through the fence, down an embankment of fifteen feet and into a pond of water. What caused the accident is not known. It is believed, however, that Jay was blinded by dust and steered into the fence. He was driving about a mile a minute when the accident happened. Jay, unconscious, would have been drowned had not two spectators sitting on the fence near by gone to his rescue and dragged him out. He was taken to the German hospital, where it was found that nine ribs were broken, one of his lungs was punctured, and his right femur was fractured. Pneumonia and pleurisy will set in within twenty-four hours, and if he survives them he may live, the surgeons say.

New York, Aug. 19.—Two small internal machines were sent to prominent New Yorkers yesterday. Jacob Schiff, the banker who early this week conferred with Mr. Witte, the chief Russian peace plenipotentiary, concerning the condition of the Jews in Russia, was the target for the more dangerous machine, a contrivance capable of causing death. The other was received by M. Guggenheim's Sons and was directed to the office of the American Smelting and Refining company. Both were turned over to the police.

Dynamiter Punished.

IMPERIAL MANIFESTO

History-Making Document Is Dated at Peterhof Today and Provides a Measure of Relief.

The People Will at Last Be Permitted to Take Part in Making Russia's Laws.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 19.—Emperor Nicholas today announced the grant to the people of Russia of a national consultative assembly to be formed by elected representatives from the whole of Russia. The imperial manifesto, which is published simultaneously here and at Moscow, and which will be read in all the churches of the empire, is dated at Peterhof today, and is as follows:

"The empire of Russia is formed and strengthened by the indestructible solidarity of the emperor with the people and of the people with the emperor. This concord of emperor and people is the great moral force which has created Russia in the course of centuries by protecting her from all misfortunes and all attacks and has constituted up to the present time a pledge of unity, independence, integrity, material well-being, and intellectual development.

"In our manifesto of Feb. 24, 1903, we called to a close understanding all the faithful sons of the fatherland in order to protect the organization of the state by establishing on a firm basis the domestic life of the empire, and then we devoted ourselves to the task of co-ordinating elective public institutions with governmental authorities and of removing the disagreements existing between them which had reacted so disastrously on the normal course of our national life.

"The autocratic emperors, our ancestors, constantly had that object in view, and the time has come to follow out their good intentions and to summon elected representatives from the whole of Russia to take constant and active part in the elaboration of the laws, thereby attaching to the higher state institutions a special consultative body entrusted with the preliminary elaboration and discussion of the measures and with the examination of the state budget.

"It is for this reason that while preserving the fundamental law regarding the autocratic power, we have deemed it well to form a gosudarstvennaia duma (lower house of the assembly), and to approve the regulations for elections to this duma, extending the validity of these laws to the whole territory of the empire, with such exceptions only as may be considered necessary in the case of some regions in which special conditions obtain. As regards the participation in the labor of the gosudarstvennaia duma of delegates from the grand duchy of Finland on questions concerning the empire in general and the grand duchy in particular, we will take special measures.

"At the same time we have ordered the minister of the interior to submit immediately for our approbation regulations for the election to the duma, so that deputies from fifty governments and from the military province of the Don may be able to assemble not later than the middle of January, 1906.

"We reserve to ourselves entirely the care of perfecting the organization of the duma; and when the course of events shall have shown the necessity for changes corresponding completely to the needs of times and the welfare of the empire, we shall not fail to give at the proper moment the necessary directions.

"We are convinced that those who shall have been elected by the confidence of the whole people and who will thus be called upon to participate in the legislative work of the work of the government will show themselves in the eyes of all Russia to be worthy of the imperial trust in the virtue of which they have been invited to cooperate in this great work, and that, in perfect harmony with other institutions and authorities of the state established by us, they will contribute profitably and zealously to our labors for the well-being of our common mother, Russia, and for the strengthening of the unity, the security and the greatness of the empire, as well as for the tranquillity and prosperity of the people.

"In invoking the blessing of the Lord on the labors of the institution established by us and with unshakable confidence in the grace of God and in the infallibility of the great historical destinies reserved by divine Providence for our beloved fatherland, we firmly hope that, with the help of God Almighty and with the combined efforts of all her sons, Russia will emerge triumphantly from the trying ordeals through which she is now passing and will be born again in the strength, the greatness and the glory of her history, extending through a thousand years.

"Given at Peterhof, this 19th day of August, in the year of grace 1905, and the eleventh year of our reign.

NICHOLAS."

MAKES NEW RULE

Hereafter Interest On Ft.
Wayne's School Fund
Will Go to Public.

A SOURCE OF WEALTH

Upon Which Several Private Fortunes Had Been Founded Will Return to Rightful Fund.

Treasurer of School Board Inaugurates a Movement That Meets With Proper Favor.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 19.—Dr. W. O. Gross, treasurer of the school board, has made his annual report, which shows that the school city of Fort Wayne handled nearly half a million dollars. The point of chief interest to municipalities, however, is the fact that he turned over to the library fund the interest received on the school funds from local depositaries, amounting to $1,032. In former years the interest earned by treasurers was retained as their own, and some private fortunes were founded on this source of wealth, making a place on the board desirable for other reasons than the public welfare. The interest item this year is not so large as it would be if the great high school and manual training building had not cost a great deal more than was anticipated.

THEFT AT FUNERAL SERVICE

Ft. Wayne Sneak Takes Purse Laid by Woman's Side in Pew.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 19.—William Carl was sent to jail for twenty days and fined $10 and costs by Judge Dreiebeliss for petty larceny committed in a church at funeral. He attended a service in the Catholic cathedral and sat beside Mrs. Thomas Greer, who laid her purse by her side. Carl slipped it into his pocket and sought to leave the pew, when another man, who had seen the transaction, stopped him and made him give the purse back without disturbing the services. Carl hastened out of the church, however, and was not arrested until later. Mrs. Greer identified him as the man who sat beside her.

New Interurban Plans.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—Gilbert Hander, of Bloomfield, and other promoters of an electric line from here to Evansville, were in the city today conferring with men who are interested in the project. They declared that the road will be built and that it will be one of the most important systems entering Indianapolis.

Child Kicked to Death.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 19.—Edith, aged nine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ball of Kankakee, Ill., who came to visit her grandfather, John Maxwell, near Ockley, died from the effects of injuries inflicted by horse's heels while the little one was assisting her grandfather in unhitching the family horse.

Victim of an Overdose.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 19.—In the case of Dr. D. H. Patchen, who was found dead in a hotel at Wolcott, and who was believed to have committed suicide, Coroner Cray finds that it was not a case of suicide, but that Patchen came to his death by taking an overdose of laudanum.

Had Torn Money.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 19.—A man suspected of being one of the robbers who blew the safe in the Free Bank at Royal, Ill., Aug. 1, is under arrest here. He had considerable paper money in whole bills and portions of other bills. After the robbery, mutilated money was found on the floor.

Assailant in Hiding.

Greencastle, Ind., Aug. 19.—Frank McCamack, who was seriously injured at a dance at Belle Union, is sinking rapidly and is now unconscious. Flores McCamack, his assailant, is said to be in the neighborhood of his home in hiding.

Valuable River Pearl.

Clinton, Ind., Aug. 19.—W. H. Paxton, a mussel and pearl hunter of this city, found a mussel in the Wabash river here which contained a pearl which he sold to a pearl buyer for $885. It is the finest pearl ever taken from the Wabash river here.

Lad Charged With Theft.

Marion, Ind., Aug. 19.—Robbers entered the home of Ruby Freeman at Landesville and secured $45 in cash, also watch and chain and a new revolver. A fifteen-year-old boy has been arrested, charged with the theft.

Valparaiso, Ind., Aug. 19.—Nathaniel Eckert, aged thirty-seven, a member of a Pennsylvania painting crew, was crushed to death between two cars.

Evidences of Criminality.

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—State Railroad Commissioner Morris, who investigated the wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited at Mentor on June 21, in which nineteen lives were lost, last night made public his report, which finds the wreck was caused by an open switch which had been locked in that position. He does not attempt to fix the responsibility for the open switch.

Husband's Shocking Mistake.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Harvey Mize shot and instantly killed his wife, mistaking her for a burglar. Mrs. Mize had gone to the rear of the house to get a drink of water for her little girl, who was ill. Her husband was awakened, and seeing the shadow of a person before him, seized a pistol and fired. His wife died without being able to speak a word.

Instantly Killed by Train.

Frankfort, Ind., Aug. 19.—James S. Kelley, an electrician, was instantly killed by a passenger train on the Lake Erie railroad.
